Christmas & New Year
2026-2027

CHÂTEAU LÉOGNAN

BORDEAUX

Once upon a time, Christmas at the château

At Château Léognan, when frost settles over the park and night falls early on the vines, the windows light up one by one. Christmas trees take their place in the salons, and the estate rediscovers the soul of a great family home.

Ever since Emma and Matthieu Seurin fell in love with it in 1870, the château has never stopped welcoming guests.

Once again this year, it opens its doors for the festive season of your dreams: a candlelit Christmas Eve dinner, presents unwrapped beneath the tree, a glass of champagne in the salons, a breakfast that makes you want to stay in the warmth.

Thirty minutes from Bordeaux, in the heart of the Pessac-Léognan vineyards, treat yourself to a few days out of time. The château takes care of everything; all that is left for you to do is enjoy the moment and make your most beautiful memories.

The estate lights up

From the beginning of December, Château Léognan dons its festive finery. The park designed by the Bühler brothers glows at nightfall, the gallery and its stone columns are adorned with light, and the chapel watches over the estate as it sleeps beneath the frost.

Inside, holly and fir trees dress the salons, the Winter Garden, the reception and Le Manège restaurant. Antique finds, candles and warm fabrics create a unique atmosphere, blending old-world charm with the gentleness of the festive season.

Here, every room invites you to slow down: a hot chocolate, a game of cards beneath the glass roof, a stroll through the park before coming back inside to warm up.

Château life on New Year's Eve

Aperitif on the 31st

The evening begins in the château's salons, reserved for hotel guests.

A glass of champagne, refined canapés, music in the air: raise a toast to the year drawing to a close, with friends or as a couple.

New Year's Eve dinner

At Le Manège, the Chef and his team serve an exceptional dinner in an intimate setting: several sittings of just a few tables. A musician plays discreetly throughout your dinner, giving this gastronomic moment an unforgettable festive air. Then the clock strikes twelve and glasses clink: welcome to 2027!

First moments of 2027 at the château

On 1 January, you take your time. No alarm, no schedule: New Year's Day breakfast is served continuously until 1pm, for a well-deserved lie-in and a deliciously indulgent awakening. A walk through the park asleep beneath the frost, then a shared moment in the Boudoir to warm up: there is no lovelier way to step into the new year than by living château life.

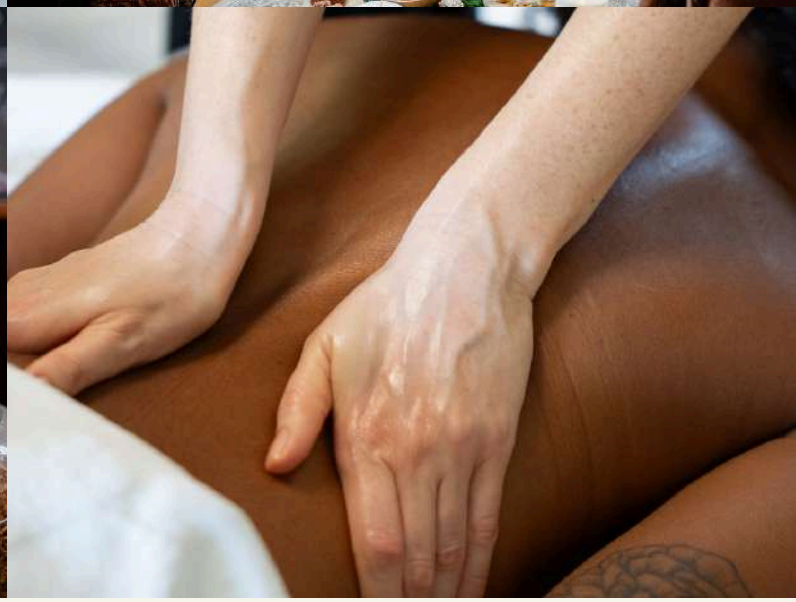
CHRISTMAS MARKET
Pessac-Léognan open days
& gift vouchers

The festive season comes alive at Château Léognan. Throughout the winter days, you let yourself be pampered at the Wellness Cabin, (re)discover red wine and food pairings from Léognan, then meet up at Le Manège's pop-up bar, a hot coffee in hand. Every year, Château Léognan holds a Christmas market during the Pessac-Léognan appellation open days.

So many little joys that turn every moment into a memory.



Food & Red wine pairing

In the heart of the Pessac-Léognan appellation, Chantal and Philippe Miecaze's 6 hectares of vines produce red wines of great elegance. Our selection showcases the riches of the Bordeaux region, notably Château Léognan 2017.

Its suppleness and long, spice-tinged tannins make beautiful pairings with the meats traditionally served at festive meals: turkey, duck, beef or lamb.

To extend the celebrations at home, or to slip a bottle under the tree, our wines await you at the Pavillon.

Open 7 days a week
By reservation

Please note that the Pavillon will be exceptionally closed on 24, 25, 26 and 31 December, as well as on 1 January.

Alcohol abuse is dangerous for your health; please drink responsibly.

Signature Yule log

Our signature Christmas Yule log, “Vigne d’Hiver” (Winter Vine), is created by our pastry Chef Dimitri Kuts.

Inspired by the grace of a vine sleeping beneath the frost, this Yule log celebrates the union of chocolate, wine and spices.

Beneath a fine shell of Valrhona Opalys white chocolate lies a silky Valrhona Jivara milk chocolate mousse. On a gingerbread base, a salted orange caramel and a Château Léognan Phénix red wine gel bring a refined aromatic depth. Raisins macerated in red wine complete this creation, like an echo of the autumn harvest.
