Maison Albar Hotels Le Monumental Palace 5*

WELCOME TO YOUR FIVE STAR SECOND HOME

The grand Maison Albar Hotels Le Monumental Palace stands on Avenida dos Aliados in the heart of historic Porto where the transition from Art Nouveau to Art Deco begins. Behind its neo-Gothic façade, elegance reigns supreme in the 63 rooms and 13 suites. The unabashedly lavish decor features bespoke furnishings and impossibly high ceilings in every room.

Le Monumental Palace perfects the art of French hospitality and makes available all the amenities you could desire, including a spa, pool, lounge and library. For your enjoyment, Michelin-starred chef Julien Montbabut crafts modern French cuisine in all its forms. From traditional brasserie fare to creative cuisine and tapas to go, you will find a mix of the latest culinary trends and dining tradition with great sophistication and a love of detail.

Chef Introduction

Michelin-starred chef Julien Montbabut crafts modern French cuisine in all its forms. From traditional brasserie fare to creative cuisine and tapas to go, you will find a mix of the latest culinary trends and dining tradition with great sophistication and a love of detail.

Bar Americain

Something to drink? Your favorite classic cocktails, special creations and a selection of the best Port wines. Care for a snack? A medley of dishes to share and sweet treats.

Monumental Café

The spirit of Paris is floating through this brasserie. This historical café is back for coffee, lunch, snack time and dinner. Traditional cuisine, foie gras, poultry and, of course, the famous dessert trolley.

Le Monument

An exceptional location with sumptuous marble and subdued lighting. The chef subtly marries flavors and accompaniments. Top-quality products are always featured. You will be blown away by the desserts. Indulge in a moment of pure delight!
