9. WINE CASTLE OF GENOELSELDEREN

Between Tongeren and Maastricht, along the old Roman roads, in the municipality of Riemst, lies the only Wine Castle of Belgium. This is not by accident, as the Romans had already vineyards in this area some 2000 years prior.

The Wine Castle of Genoels-Elderen is with its 25 hectares of vineyards, the largest wine domain in the country, and welcomes every year some 15000 visitors.

You make a walk through the park, around the castle with a splendid arboretum, the rose garden and the largest vineyards of Belgium. You visit the old chariot house which contains the most modern grape press, the distillery, and the antique and modern wine cellars.

To finish off, you taste our wines in the wine house. During your walk you learn about the past, the present and the future of the property, the restoration projects, the special 300 year old trees, the working process in the vineyards and about the entire vinification from grape to the wine in your glass.
