A casually luxurious heritage

Classified as a historical monument and carefully renovated by Atelier COS Architecture, the wood paneled facade of Maison Albar - Le Vendome takes us back to the 1880s, when the building housed one of the largest Parisian cabarets-restaurants, the Lyon D'Or, which catered to a wealthy and trendy clientele with a strong penchant for art and performance.

« This restaurant is one of a kind and is one of the wonders of France's capital. Furnished and decorated in true Renaissance style, it enjoys, among travelers of all nationalities, a very great reputation for its comfort, its grandiose luxury, its exquisite cuisine, and its renowned wines. It was annexed, in 1880, to the world-famous HOTEL DU HELDER, where Apartments and Rooms can be reserved in advance by letter or dispatch. »

A setting designed by the architect Fabien Roque and Atelier COS Architecture

The hotel was completely imagined by Fabien Roque, interior designer and founder of the Roque Intérieurs agency, and Atelier COS Architecture, a harmonious duo who co-signed this project.

*I wanted to bring back to life a forgotten era, a time when the Lyon d'Or was a myth throughout Paris.
I therefore attached myself to history to redesign this hotel.*

FABIEN ROQUE, INTERIOR ARCHITECT

From your very first steps into Le Vendome, you are immediately immersed in the place's history.

On the right, observe the first part of Philippe Buil's sculpture representing the tail of our Golden Lion in full resurrection.

On the left, the entryway mural, Les archipels du Lion d'Or, was made on commission by Marc Danaud, using ash and coal, a sign of rebirth, and gold leaf, in homage to the name of the cabaret once housed here. It evokes a poetic geographical map of archipelagos, seen from the sky, which can be made out in the middle of a misty, mysterious ocean.

This work is declined in 52 unique paintings found in the different rooms of our Maison, thus entrusting one of these archipelagos to each of our guests.

Climb a few steps, pass under the lion's mane on the ceiling, and enter into a peaceful, bright lobby.

Immediately on the right, you will see our golden lion, the second part of the sculpture by Philippe Buil, an icon of our Maison. You will also find a lion's head on all the doors of our rooms.

A casually luxurious haven

Behind the doors of Maison Albar Le Vendome, lies a casually luxurious and intimate address with 51 rooms and suites, an intimate cocoon for a stay as a couple, with family, or with friends. In this harmonious place, perfectly conceived by Fabien Roque, you will feel the same contrast between the corridors, with their ashy tones with gold touches, and the bright rooms, as you did when you made your first steps into Le Vendome.

ROOMS ET SUITES.

Carefully decorated, our rooms and suites bring a touch of modernity while preserving the place's natural luxury. Elegant and luminous, each detail has been custom designed to bring brightness and delicacy: golden furniture with harmonious lines, white marble, parquet, touches of emerald green...

OUR ICONIC SUITES.

Our Vendome Suite has all the features of a real Parisian attic apartment. Under the roofs, reserve for yourself an intimate parenthesis in this luxurious setting. Its large bay window, overlooking the zinc roofs and our garden, offers you urban life within a green cocoon. Enjoy a well-timed, relaxing bath under the roof window and gaze at the stars.

Discover the Opéra Garnier as you have never seen it before. The Opera Suite is hidden on the top floor and offers an exceptional view of the roofs of Paris and the Opera Garnier, a reminder that we are in the heart of the Capital. The sunset is magnificent here, allowing you to truly understand why Paris is known as the City of Lights.

Walk through the inner garden
at the heart of *Le Vendome

Designed by Fabien Roque and entrusted to Jardins de Gally, one would think that this lush, wild garden had always been here. It offers surprising freshness, calm and serenity to our Maison in the bustling heart of the capital.

Look up to discover the interior façade designed by Atelier COS Architecture. Its resolutely contemporary look, a checkerboard composed of large black oriels punctuating a pure white, Corian (synthetic resin) cladding, contrasts with the exterior façade, thus providing a perfect balance between the past and the present.

A haven of peace for a mythical stay in the capital.

A gastronomic destination between Japan and the Mediterranean

Hidden in the back of Le Vendome, Yakuza by Olivier Paris is a destination in itself. This place brings back to life the festive heritage of the Lyon D'Or of yesteryear. After your welcome by a real Yakuza (Japanese mafioso), the street art decor plunges you into the heart of Japan. Take the time to relax with a drink while feasting your eyes on the interior garden. Then watch our sushi masters prepare exceptional fusion cuisine in the open kitchen, all in a trendy, lounge atmosphere. Designed by Fabien Roque, this intimate space with its garden-view bar and dimly lit restaurant is in perfect harmony the rest of the house.

A room accommodating up to 15 people can be privatized.

The Spa Vendome, a wellness haven

After having made Paris vibrate in the 1880s, the address was home to the Russian Bank for Foreign Trade in 1930. The mosaic staircase is part of this second heritage: it once led to the vault. Restored, it now serves as a perfect transition into Le Vendome's wellness area.
