HET HOTEL & THE LOCATION

MARTIN'S PATERSHOF: MODERN COMFORT IN A HISTORIC SETTING

THE FLAGSHIP OF THE FRIARS

Hotel Martin's Patershof is located in the former O-L-V-Ter-Engelen church. For the older inhabitants of Mechelen, the church is more commonly known as the "Paterskerk". For centuries, the church was the flagship of the Friars.

Since the 1970s, every year there were fewer and fewer Friars in Mechelen. By the late 1990s, only a few remained. In 1999, when there were not enough Friars to maintain the church and its attached monastery, the church was deconsecrated by the Archdiocese of Mechelen-Brussels.

First of all, the altar stone was removed from the church. As a result, the church was officially no longer 'A House of God'. It was one of the first times in Belgium that a church building would be re-designated.

HOTEL MARTIN'S PATERSHOF

When hotel Martin's Patershof opened in 2009, the concept of a hotel in a church did not yet exist yet. The fact that the hotel had 5 floors was an extra admirable achievement. 56 rooms and 3 classic meeting rooms are located in the church. As well as the impressive "Keizer Karel" room housed at the original altar. In addition, 23 rooms were also added in the former monastery part of the original site.

Centuries ago, this historic place was already a place of deliberation and togetherness. Here, the Friars discussed their daily agenda, enjoyed meals together and reflected on their future in an ever-changing environment.

A tradition Martin's Patershof continues to this day.
