LOCALISATION

Saint Germain-des-Prés is without a doubt so much more than a Parisian quarter: it is a state of mind, the very essence of the Left Bank at its most loquacious. Maison Cardinal Furstemberg takes you to the very heart and soul of Saint-Germain-des-Prés which, from era to era, generation to generation, perpetuates its unique intellectual footprint and unobtrusive elegance. Here, you are right by its emblematic church —a jewel in the French heritage crown par excellence. Here, you will find the iconic terraces of the Deux Magots and Flore, the BDM (Bar du Marché), and the photogenic Place de Fürstenberg and its labyrinth of streets with intriguing names, each with its plethora of “in” clubs and restaurants, highly desirable luxury goods Houses, art galleries and publishers, all in the spirit of the age. The places where truly urban and urbane vibrancy communes with village charm, smooth-talking insiders and more contemplative souls... just happy to take in this part of Paris as they go, in all its authenticity, and well and truly inhabited.
