

PARC MONCEAU

Built in the 18th century by the Duke of Chartres

The visit begins at the park's entrance, with a magnificent wrought-iron gate adorned with gold accents. From there, discover numerous statues, a Renaissance-style arcade inspired by the Hôtel de Ville in Paris, breathtaking trees, grand fountains, and sculptures honoring renowned writers and musicians of the Second Empire, such as Chopin, Maupassant, and de Musset.

GETTING THERE

35 Bd. de Courcelles, 75008 Paris

12
minutes

6
minutes

PARC DES BUTTES CHAUMONT

Inaugurated in 1867 by Napoleon III

Parc des Buttes-Chaumont is renowned for its waterfalls, lake, and temple perched atop a rocky peak. With its steep paths and sprawling lawns, it offers a unique setting for strolling, picnicking, or enjoying one of the most stunning views of Paris. A must-visit for those who appreciate winding, scenic walks.

GETTING THERE

Place Armand-Carrel, 75019 Paris

28
minutes

38
minutes

JARDIN DU LUXEMBOURG

Created in 1612 for Marie de Médicis

Immerse yourself in the charm of the Jardin du Luxembourg: a peaceful retreat in the heart of Paris. This park harmoniously combines French and English garden styles. Admire its elegant statues, central fountain, and historic orangery. A perfect stop for lovers of art, history, and nature.

GETTING THERE

Rue de Médicis, 75006 Paris

1 hour

25
minutes

38
minutes

JARDIN DES TUILERIES

Commissioned in the 16th century by Catherine de Médicis

Nestled between Place de la Concorde and the Louvre Museum, this park offers a perfect blend of nature and architecture. Stroll through its sculpture-lined pathways, admire its reflective ponds, and soak in the elegance of its French-style gardens. A serene retreat in the heart of Paris, it's a must-visit for history and beauty enthusiasts.

GETTING THERE

113, Rue de Rivoli, 75001 Paris

33
minutes

11
minutes

16
minutes

BOIS DE BOULOGNE

Forest transformed into a park in 1852

Explore the Bois de Boulogne, a vast estate transformed by Napoleon III and Alphand into an English-style park. Stroll around the upper lake and visit the Jardin d'Acclimatation or the Louis Vuitton Foundation, designed by Frank Gehry, a modern architectural masterpiece nestled in lush greenery.

GETTING THERE

Bois de Boulogne, 75016 Paris

40
minutes

13
minutes

27
minutes

JARDIN DES SERRES D'AUTEUIL

Built in 1761 by Louis XV, redesigned in the 19th century.

Explore a true botanical haven in the Jardins des Serres d'Auteuil. These historic greenhouses house exotic plants, majestic palm trees, and rare flowers. A sensory and cultural journey where the beauty of nature blends seamlessly with the architectural elegance of the 19th century.

GETTING THERE

3 Av. de la Porte d'Auteuil, 75016 Paris

23
minutes

37
minutes

PARC DE BAGATELLE

Built in 1775

Discover the Parc de Bagatelle, conceived overnight and built in just 64 days following a bet between Marie Antoinette and the Count of Artois. This romantic garden, enhanced by its renowned rose garden, is home to the charming Château de Bagatelle, designed by architect Bélanger. An idyllic destination where nature, history, and elegance converge.

GETTING THERE

42, Rte. de Sèvres à Neuilly, 75016 Paris

22
minutes

49
minutes

JARDIN DU TROCADÉRO

Gardens permanently redesigned in 1937

The Jardin du Trocadéro, designed for the 1937 World's Fair, is an open-air stage facing the Eiffel Tower. With its monumental fountains, sculptures, and iconic water features, this landmark offers a visually stunning and historically rich experience.

GETTING THERE

Pl. du Trocadéro et du 11 Novembre, 75016 Paris

27
minutes

9
minutes

16
minutes

JARDIN DU PALAIS ROYAL

Commissioned in 1663 by Cardinal Richelieu

Surrounded by arcades and galleries, this space offers a perfect harmony between classical architecture and meticulously maintained gardens. Stroll among its blooming flowerbeds and fountains, and let yourself be enchanted by the timeless atmosphere of this haven in the heart of Paris.

GETTING THERE

8, Rue de Montpensier, 75001 Paris

43
minutes

17
minutes

22
minutes

PARC MONTsouris

Imagined in 1860 by Baron Haussmann

A romantic green haven, this landscaped park charms with its expansive lawns, century-old trees, and tranquil lake, where ducks and swans glide by. An ideal place for family walks, moments of relaxation, and peaceful contemplation.

GETTING THERE

2, Rue Gazan, 75014 Paris

33
minutes

47
minutes

PARC GEORGES BRASSENS

Opened to the public in 1985

Discover the charm of Parc George Brassens, created on the former site of the Vaugirard slaughterhouses. With its themed gardens, vineyard, and picturesque bridge, this park beautifully combines nature and local history. Additionally, the large antique and second-hand book market draws book lovers every weekend.

GETTING THERE

2, Pl. Jacques Marette, 75015 Paris

30
minutes

37
minutes

PARC FLORAL DE PARIS

Inaugurated in 1969

Let yourself be amazed by the Parc Floral de Paris, where nature becomes a work of art. This park, dedicated to flora, features themed gardens, plant sculptures, and open-air concerts. A perfect spot for botany enthusiasts and families seeking outdoor activities.

GETTING THERE

Route de la Pyramide, 75012 Paris

46
minutes

43
minutes

PARC DE LA BUTTE DU CHAPEAU ROUGE

Opened to the public in 1939

Admire the panoramic view offered by the Parc de la Butte du Chapeau Rouge, nestled on the heights of the 19th arrondissement. This Art Deco and Neoclassical park enchants with its terraces, sculptures, and expansive relaxation areas. A hidden gem where art and nature beautifully intersect.

GETTING THERE

5, Av. Debidour, 75019 Paris

34
minutes

1
hour

PARC ANDRÉ CITROËN

Opened to the public in 1992

This contemporary creation, built on the site of the former Citroën factory, stands out with its themed gardens, large greenhouse, and captive balloon, offering an exceptional view of Paris. A place where innovation and nature come together in a surprisingly harmonious way.

GETTING THERE

2, rue de la Montagne-de-la-Fage, 75015 Paris

19
minutes

38
minutes

PARC MARTIN LUTHER KING

Opened to the public in 2020

Designed to blend nature and urbanity, this ecological park offers landscaped gardens, innovative play areas, and natural ponds. Perfect for relaxation, sports, or admiring the surrounding architecture, it is a contemporary retreat in the heart of the city.

GETTING THERE

147, Rue Cardinet, 75017 Paris

36
minutes

16
minutes

19
minutes

Please respect park preservation guidelines.